Quick Quote Functionality Changes

Overview

- Approval
 - Single approval step for Procurement Office
 - Approvers assigned using Role
 - User Role triggers approval
- Amendments
 - Revise issued Quick Quote
 - Replaces prior version (ex. V2)
 - Vendors are notified
- History
 - Captures approval/denial actions
 - Captures amendment changes

FORUM2013

Quick Quote Approvals

Concept: You control whether a user can issue a quick quote (or amendment) without Procurement Office approval.

Features

- User Set-up... Roles
 - Standard User (approval required)
 - Advanced User (approval not required)
- Approver Set-up
 - Role (QQ Approver)
 - Linked to BSOs (“What you see is what you get” ... to approve)
- Actions
 - Approve/Deny & Comment
 - Denials... user edits & resubmits
 - History records all actions

Amendments.... Really this time!

Concept: Users can edit issued Quick Quotes and add/change/delete anything.

Features - Buyer

- “Anything”: Any header detail, close date, add/change/delete lines, comments, attachments.....
- Can require new responses
- Future publishing allowed
- For standard users amendment must be approved
- Amendment versions Quick Quote (v2) & replaces the previous Quick Quote
- History tracking of all changes

Features – Buyer continued....

- An amended Quick Quote is in “Pending” status until approved.
- Current published Quick Quote is still “Live” until its amended version is approved and replaces it.
- Vendors who are added to a Quick Quote’s distribution will receive all future amendments (if applicable).

FORUM2013

Evaluation

- Only valid responses will show in the evaluation
- Valid response? What does that mean?

FORUM2013

New Responses Required: Mandatory vs. Optional

- Mandatory: “Form, Fit, or Function”
 - Changes to Bid Valid Days, Award Method, Quantity, Unit of Measure, Need by Date, Ship To Location
 - New or deleted line items
- Optional: For any other changes, the Buyer decides

The screenshot displays a web-based procurement system interface. At the top, the request ID is 'EVA001_QQ027448-V5 - issued'. Navigation buttons include 'Amend', 'Previous', 'Submit', and 'Save/Close'. Below the ID, there are two tabs: 'Request Review' (active) and 'History'. The main content area features a question: '*Are your changes material?' with radio button options for 'Yes' and 'No'. An information icon (i) is located to the right of the question. Below the question is a green bar labeled 'Request Header'.
